Summary

Jean Duby loves to spend time at the public library.

- A translation of La bibliothèque municipale by MiaQc

I am Jean Duby, a man with glasses. I love spending time in the public library. The silence. All these books to stimulate my intellect. To conduct research. Research on the Fort Boyard treasure. I know it exists, but I have too few elements to know how to find it. I dream that a treasure seeker will find me for information. Then I could do business with them. My knowledge against 90% of the treasure. I would then become rich and I could live my dream life.
